Deadline application is March 31, 2026

Thank you for your interest in the BLT—we will notify all those applying as to the decision of the Director Selection Committee.

-Please start with show title before your answer.

1. Please tell us why you feel this production is important and relevant to the area---and specifically to BLT audiences. If you have concerns about this show-cast size, staging problems, language, etc.-please list them. (include separate page for more space)

2. Do you have production requirements or conflicts in which the BLT needs to be aware of? -i.e. rehearsal times, addressing conflicts, staff suggestions, etc. (include separate page for more space)

Once filled out, send in this form and a resume.

If you have directed at the BLT within the past 3 seasons, you do not need to include a resume.

Completed questionnaires can be emailed to bellevuelittletheatre@gmail.com.

What to expect from the BLT's process:

Application Deadlines

Selection Process

1. Meet & Greet: New Stage Director applicants will participate in a brief meet & greet session with the selection committee. Note: Applicants from the 2025–26 season are exempt from this step.
2. In-Depth Interviews: Shortlisted Stage Directors will meet with the committee to discuss their artistic vision and production choices in detail.
3. Notification: The committee will notify all applicants of their status once a decision is reached.

Creative Team Placement

Upon acceptance and commitment letter signed, Stage Directors will receive a directory of all Music Director, Choreographer and Designer applicants. While Directors are encouraged to review this list, they are not required to hire from it.

Announcement: Stage Director selections are tentatively scheduled for release in late April or early May.
